DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-3, 5, 9, and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Stanelle et al. USP 5,190,132.

Stanelle et al. teaches the claimed invention as outlined (on the previously attached Drawing figure 1 of 3 of Stanelle et al.), except for the operation of the flap. The applicant's flap pivots to open and close while the flap of Stanelle et al. slides back and forth to open and close. It would have been an obvious matter of design choice as to how one attaches a closable flap to open/close a tube, there are many known options as to how a tube may regulate flow and the mere selection of one these options does not provide a patentable departure over the device of Stanelle et al. Furthermore, the applicant does provide a particular reason in the claims why having a pivoting flap is better than another closure method of a flap.

3. Claims 6-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Stanelle et al. USP 5,190,132.

Stanelle et al. teach the claimed invention as outlined above except for the sealing ring (to prevent fine materials from leaking outside the guide tube) which is present in the applicant's telescoping sections. Instead Stanelle et al. teach a sealing tube 22 which stretches from top to bottom on the exterior of the guide tube. It would have been an obvious matter of design choice as to how a device is sealed from escaping material and the mere selection of sealing individual sections versus sealing the entire exterior of a tube would be specific to the application at hand and the mere selection of one over the other does not provide a patentable departure from the device of Stanelle et al. Furthermore, the mere sealing of telescoping sections is not a new concept.

Art Unit: 3651

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 11-13 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 3651

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
